

New Zealand

By Emeilne & Roisin

New Zealand

.New Zealand is located in the south western Pacific Ocean

.The capital city of New Zealand is Wellington

.The population of New Zealand is estimated to be around 4.5 million at the start of 2013

New Zealand Animals

.When Maori arrived in New Zealand Aotearoa they gave kiwi its name

.Dogs and cats can be very dangerous for wild kiwis . We need everyone who owns a cat or dog to make sure they stay away fro kiwis

Body Art

In New Zealand women and men get tattoos all over their bodies . Women only get tattoos on their chins but men get tattoos every where

The Haka

The Haka is a dance performed at a concert or before a rugby match starts . It looks very funny but in New Zealand its important
